

Joe Fasolo - Principal

Joe has been in the education field for some 38 years and a Principal for almost 22 years. This is his 4th year as Principal at Mount Pleasant Primary School. Joe has taught in both rural and metropolitan schools and in a variety of socio-economic environments. Last year he completed the Independent Public School training and looks forward to the flexibilities and the ability to target specific school needs that come with being an Independent Public School.