

Nigel Van Luinen

Over the last 15 years I have held positions in marketing, sales, engineering, project management and general management across multiple industries, several of which were internationally based.

Currently the Project Director for Motorola Solutions supporting customers such as WA Police and DFES, I hope to bring my expertise to the school community to help make Mount Pleasant Primary a school of choice.

As a new parent to the school, I am excited to be part of the Board.